

User Experience

1. Interactive course material

Open GI Trainers guide delegates through interactive sessions, ensuring maximum participation.

2. Immediate feedback

Trainers are able to respond to delegate feedback immediately via online messages or verbal communication.

3. Multiple delegates

Up to 8 delegates are able to take part in any one session, making the learning experience as interactive as possible for groups of staff.

4. One-on-one support

Trainers can monitor how each delegate is using the Open GI system throughout the session and will offer any individual support required.
